

Introduction to Diploma of Justice Administration 39184QLD

Do you have an interest in law and justice?

Discover more about the skills and knowledge you need to excel in a range of justice-related clerical positions in all levels of government and community services. From Court Security and registry, to immigration control and community policing, it's the perfect course to kick start your career.

Job opportunities

Administration officer in regulatory government departments such as customs, corrections, courts, immigration, police service and in securities industries and private investigations.

Whilst students will not be eligible to apply to either the Queensland Police Service or the Australian Federal Police, they will gain the underpinning knowledge to assist in understanding legislation.

Features

- One day per week over 12 months, 2 hour session (for year 12 students only) 4pm-6pm at Bracken Ridge and Caboolture campuses
- Sound Achievement in Year 11 English (can include English Communication) is a prerequisite
- Students achieving competency will be given automatic entry into the Diploma of Justice Administration
- $30 material fee per year program.

Semester one and two

JUS401B	Analyse criminal and civil justice systems
BSBRES401A	Analyse and present research information